Become a Friend

The Friends play a vital role in supporting the Museum of Cambridge. Membership is open to anyone who wishes to contribute to the Museum's work. The Museum of Cambridge is an independent charity; we are not run by either the local council or the University. This means we rely entirely on entrance fees, room hire, donations and the work of volunteers to survive.

Friends enjoy free admission to the Museum, as well as special Friends-only events and priority booking for other occasions. Becoming a Friend is a great way of getting involved with the Museum of Cambridge and meeting a diverse community of fellow supporters of the Museum. Your subscription helps fund the preservation of our collection and archives, the development of events and outreach work, and special exhibitions and displays.

As a Friend, you will:

- Make an important contribution to the life of the Museum, helping it preserve its collections and undertake important work in the Cambridge community;
- Help the Museum tell the unique stories of the people of Cambridge and the surrounding area;
- Enjoy free admission to the Museum;
- Receive invitations to Friends' events and priority booking for other events.
- Receive a regular Friends' newsletter.

I understand that if I pay less income and/or Capital Gains Tax in the current tax year than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations it is my responsibility to pay any difference.
