

Discuss whether these statements are True or False and why. Are these statements completely True/False or only partly?

Victorian schools were stricter than in the present day.

Children were happier at Victorian schools.

Schools in the present day are better because they have electronic equipment such as calculators and laptops.

I would prefer to go to a Victorian school than a school today.

Children learn more at schools in the present day than they did at Victorian schools.

School has always been compulsory for children.

Life was harder for children in the Victorian period.

I would prefer to be a child in the Victorian period.

There are some similarities between Victorian schools and schools in the present day.